What Do These Lucky Lottery Winners Have in Common? Wheels Instant Games Players Received More Than $110.2 Million in Prizes in March

TRENTON (April 25, 2017) – Truck driver Robert T. was getting fuel for his tractor trailer truck when he decided to step inside the store and grab a bite to eat. After purchasing a bowl of cereal he had $3 remaining in his pocket. He decided to spend it on a $3 Win for Life ticket. That $3 ticket turned into $5,000 a month for life, with a current cash value of $1,275,000. This is not Robert's first big win; he won $138,000 five years ago playing Jersey Cash 5. Robert plans to put this money towards his retirement, but won't stop playing yet. According to Robert, he plans to be back in our Winners Club within the next five years. He purchased his ticket at Lukoil, 2446 Route 22 Center Island, Union in Union County.

Bus driver Efraim Menten enjoys playing scratch-off games a few times a week, in his spare time. On a stop at Singin, 1215 Lakewood Rd., Toms River in Ocean County, he spotted the $5 Super Cash Spectacular game in the store and decided that it looked like a lucky ticket. He was correct; it was a $10,000 winner. Efraim has celebrated multiple small wins in the past, but never more than $500. Congratulations to Efraim.

Truck driver Steven Dougherty is everyone's favorite delivery person because he brings ice cream to stores all around New Jersey. While driving his route he enjoys playing various Lottery Instant Games. Big Money Spectacular has always been his favorite, but he now has a new favorite as he just won a sweet $500,000 playing the $10 Win Fall instant game.

Steven bought and scratched the ticket at Nick's Mini Mart & Subs, 1010 Route 202 South, Branchburg in Somerset County. When he saw the matching numbers on the game board he asked another Lottery playing customer in the store to confirm what he thought he saw. When asked how he will enjoy the winnings he said, "I will be debt free and maybe buy myself a little fishing boat. The rest will be invested for my retirement." Oh, and his favorite ice cream flavor is Cappuccino Crunch.
